

Effat Library and Cultural Museum

WHERE KNOWLEDGE MEETS HISTORY AND CULTURE

Effat Library and Cultural Museum is spread over two floors of a 7,100m² building and includes a study mezzanine, alongside comfortable reading, studying and teaching areas accommodating well over 660 users.

The first floor is home to our expanding collection of over 30,000 print and 377,500 electronic volumes, relating to programs taught at Effat University.

Benefits for external members

As part of our commitment to supporting lifelong learning in the wider community, Effat Library and Cultural Museum warmly welcomes faculty, researchers and postgraduate students

You can benefit from the use of many of the advanced services, learning resources, facilities and equipment enjoyed by our students and staff.

- Research consultation and support.
- On and off-site access to our vast e-book and e-journal collection.
- Borrowing of monographs, DVDs and fiction books.
- Use of computer terminals.
- Photocopying, scanning and printing.
- Private study room reservation.
- Free Wi-Fi.
- Cultural Exhibitions.

To inquire about subscription fees please contact the Library on externalmember@effatuniversity.edu.sa